

LAWRENCEVILLE

GEORGIA

Glenn Martin City Council, Post 1 City of Lawrenceville

Glenn Martin has been a Lawrenceville resident since 1987. After an initial career in student ministry and serving as a local pastor, he made a career change to portrait photography and became vice president of products and sales for a large school portrait studio. In 1995, he began a portrait and wedding photography business in Lawrenceville. Currently, Glenn specializes in business headshots, editorial photography and family portraits.

Glenn is a past president of the Lawrenceville Kiwanis Club, and has also served as chairman of the Board of the Georgia 2-Day Walk for Breast Cancer. He was also the 2-Day Walk's official photographer for 10 years. He served on the Lawrenceville Citizen Budget Review Committee for three years. Glenn is a board member and former treasurer of the Central Gwinnett Cluster Foundation.

Glenn and his wife, Nancy, are members of the First United Methodist Church of Lawrenceville. Glenn has served in many leadership roles at the church, including chairperson of the Administrative Council, and for many years, as a delegate to the North Georgia Annual Conference. Beyond the local church, he has served the North Georgia Conference on the Board of Ordained Ministry and the Board of Church Development.

Glenn is also a Memphis Barbeque Network certified judge. He has judged contests all over the southeast, including the World Championship at Memphis in May. An avid cook, he shares his wit and wisdom on his cooking blog.

Nancy is a former principal at Central Gwinnett High School. Their daughter, Janell, is a Central Gwinnett High School graduate and lives in Atlanta.

